

GREENACRES TENNIS CLUB INCORPORATED

PLAYER CODE OF CONDUCT

Greenacres Tennis Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members.

GTC believes that it is important that all members associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

As a member of Greenacres Tennis Club you are expected to abide by the following code of conduct;

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Play by the rules.
- Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit as well as that of your team.
- Give your best at all times.
- Be fair, considerate and honest in all dealings with others.
- Treat all participants in sport how you would like to be treated.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their age, gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Never argue with an official – if you need clarification, have your captain, coach or manager approach the official during a break or after the competition.
- Be a good sport – applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the opposition.
- Show respect to and acknowledge opponents and officials – (e.g. shake hands before and after the game and say, 'thanks for the game').
- Play fair and control your temper – no verbal abuse, sledging other players (including vilification) or deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent.
- Keep yourself up to date with all the GTC Policies – these are available on the website or in the club rooms.
- If you have any grievances with another member of the Club, please ensure that you speak with the Member Protection Officer – Craig Livori.

